Appeals

The following procedure applies to all learners who feel that they have a legitimate reason to appeal against any decision made by a member of the EdgeWorks™ Awarding Body Registered Centre.

Action the learner must take:

- Discuss with The internal verifier the nature of the issue being raised.
- If the matter cannot be resolved at this level the Centre Manager will intervene and attempt to find a resolution to the issue being raised
- If the matter cannot be resolved at this level then the learner is to appeal in writing to
- Another qualified assessor (the "Appeals adjudicator") will be appointed to investigate the appeal.
- The learner maintains the right to appeal to the Awarding Organisation of they choose to.
- A successful appeal does not mean that the learner is competent; a re-assessment may be needed to prove this.

Records of appeal will be kept in the appeals file.

The learner's right to appeal is contained in all Awarding Organisation learner books.

Complaints

EdgeWorks™ expect all learners to have a positive experience, but recognise that, at times, this may not be the result. The company expects all reasonable steps to be taken to ensure that learners are dealt with, with courtesy, respect and professionalism at all times. If the learner is not satisfied, this should be discussed at the earliest opportunity to prevent the situation escalating. If, after an informal discussion with their assessor / tutor or their Internal Verifier, the learner wishes to make a formal complaint, this must be done, in writing, within 5 working days and addressed to the Internal Verifier

They will then investigate the circumstances and meet with the learner to feedback, within 10 working days of the receipt.

A written record of the complaint, the investigation and the initial outcome should be maintained and forwarded to the Centre Manager.

The outcome of the complaint may be as follows;

- Complaint upheld and resolved.

If the learner remains unsatisfied with the decision at this stage and this procedure has been exhausted, then the learner can contact the awarding organisation.

The awarding organisation should only be contacted when this procedure is FULLY exhausted.

4. Fair access of assessment

This section contains a statement of EdgeWorks™ policy for:

- Access to equality of opportunity in the assessment process.
- Learners with special needs / additional learning needs.
- Fairness in assessment and quality assurance.

Access to assessment and equality of opportunity

EdgeWorks™ will ensure that learners have access to assessment for qualifications regardless of their sex, sexuality, marital status, age, religion, colour, race, nationality, ethnic origin or disability.

The assessment process must be free from any barriers which unnecessarily restrict access. In particular the Centre Manager must ensure that.

- There are no upper or lower age limits (unless this is a legal requirement of the employment role/care setting), unless restricted by funding.
- Assessment is independent of a specified period of time to be spent in education, training or work,
  - except where legal/statutory constraints make this necessary
- Any learners with additional/special support needs are given the opportunity to discuss ways of
  - providing solutions to problems they feel are related to access and other issues and have the potential to impede their demonstration of competence. Wherever possible the necessary resources are made available to facilitate the assessment of these learners.
  - configuring the online system to suit their individual access requirements.
- Assessment decisions are free from discrimination on any grounds other than competence.

Wherever possible, work should be completed in normal working time. Managers should ensure suitable learning and development time is given for this. Issues in this area should be highlighted in writing to the Centre Manager.

Learners with special needs / additional learning needs

Internal verifiers must ensure that access to assessment is available to all learners, and the assessment system must allow them to demonstrate their competence / knowledge in the most appropriate way.

To enable access to assessment, there needs to be a reasonable amount of flexibility in considering alternative methods of assessment satisfaction.

There may be learners with particular special needs, such as those with a visual, hearing or mobility impairment, or learning difficulty, which need to use alternative means of providing evidence. In these cases, there is a need to adopt different approaches to assessing particular elements of competence at all times, however, the proposed assessment methods must be genuine alternatives ensuring that the evidence collected is of equal quality and rigor to that required of other learners. The requirements of the standards cannot be compromised.

Any aids can be used in assessment that could reasonably be employed in the job, such as:.

- A word processor for learners with writing or learning difficulties.

If there are any concerns about the use of alternative assessment methods the Centre Manager must be consulted and, if need be, the matter will be referred to the External Verifier.

Fairness in assessment and quality assurance

The internal verifier will ensure that the principles of open access and fair assessment are central to qualifications and Qualification and curriculum framework (QCF) units. Part of the internal verifier's role is to guide and support assessors to ensure judgments relating to assessments are fair, consistent and free from any bias.

Fairness is making sure that:

- The system has not asked the learner to do things which are not required by the qualification.
- Learners are carrying out tasks of equal difficulty in relation to the same unit.
- The methods of assessment used for each learner offer equal rigor, while providing valid and reliable assessment.
- Each learner has covered all the requirements of the qualification.
- Assessment opportunities do not discriminate against individuals or groups of learners.

5. Centre Quality Assurance procedure

All internal quality assurance activities at EdgeWorks™ will follow this procedure. The purpose of this procedure is to ensure that all assessment and internal quality assurance activities are undertaken in a way which meets the requirements of the Awarding Organisation and National Occupational Standards. Internal verifiers must not verify their own work and the system will not allow this to occur.

The Centre Manager is responsible for ensuring all Internal Verifiers are trained, competent and qualified, maintaining, monitoring and reviewing arrangements for processing internal quality assurance information and providing confirmation to Awarding organisations that internal quality assurance practices are to national occupational standards.

- EdgeWorks™ recognises the role and responsibility for the Internal Verifier and allows sufficient time and resources for the activities to be undertaken effectively.
- A nominated person has been nominated by EdgeWorks™ to be responsible for operating, monitoring, reviewing and adapting Centre systems and internal quality assurance. This person has obtained a nationally recognised internal quality assurance award, works consistently with the national occupational standards and supports other internal verifiers to meet qualification standards.
- Each internal verifier must maintain a sampling plan detailing dates when sampling will take place.
- Each qualification should be verified at least twice during the programme, including summative quality assurance and the sampling plan updated appropriately.
- Decisions of trainee and newly qualified assessors will be 100% verified until the internal verifier is confident that work meets the national standards. 50% will be sampled following agreement with external verifier.
- Where concerns on assessment decisions are identified by the internal verifier additional quality assurance and support will take place until confident the assessment decisions made by the assessor meet national standards.
- This procedure will be reviewed every three months by the Centre Manager.

Assessment staff

The Centre Manager and Internal Verifier will:

- Ensure all assessors have sufficient relevant and current occupational competence, understand the national standards and hold or are working towards a nationally recognised Assessor qualification. All trainee assessors must have appropriate and time sensitive target dates for completion of the Assessor Award and must have all decisions agreed and counter-signed by an appropriately qualified and experienced assessor and have the level of support and mentoring required to enable them to complete the award and make assessment decisions in a way which meet national standards.
- Ensure that any training and development needs identified through the counter-signatory process will be recorded and reported to the Centre Manager.
- Ensure all assessors have access to, and understand, copies of centre and Awarding organisation paperwork, policies and procedures, along with full and up-to-date Awarding Body information and scheme books.
- Ensure all assessment and quality assurance staff attend and participate in standardisation exercises as a means of making consistent quality decisions.

Standardisation sessions and exercises

The Internal Verifiers will:

- Plan and record dates of standardisation and other meetings and activities to cover at least the next six months of assessment and internal quality assurance cycles.
- Co-ordinate and ensure participation of regular standardisation exercises by each assessor.
- Record and monitor feedback and action planning with assessor when training and development needs are identified.

6. External verifier visits and certification

The following procedure will detail what must happen before during and after an External Verifier visit.

The co-ordinating Internal Verifier must:

- Prepare for the external quality assurance visit in line with the Centre Manager.
- Check that the planning schedule has been completed to date and all relevant items are available for the external verifier.
- Ensure that a certification record is completed for each learner being put forward for certification and that a certification record summary sheet is completed prior to external quality assurance where Direct claims status (D.C.S.) is not held for any qualification.
- Retain copies of these after issuing the originals to the external verifier.
- Feedback to Awarding organisation information from the assessment team.
- Make arrangements for external verifier visits and ensure that room and computer are available to access Learner work, records and internal quality assurance records are available for each visit.
- Retain a copy of the feedback for the Centre file.
- Receive and retain a verifier report form for each external verifier visit and ensure that any action arising out of the visit is disseminated to the team and taken by the dates indicated.
- On receipt of certificates, ensure that these are passed to learners and a record maintained.

Evaluation and review policy

Policies and procedures will be monitored, reviewed and evaluated to ensure the centre maintains the highest standard of quality assurance and meets the regulatory requirements of outside agencies.

Monitoring, reviewing and evaluating of policies will take place during an annual cycle, culminating in the final stage – the centre policies and procedures evaluation – which will feed into the centre quality assurance circle.

Monitoring, reviewing and evaluating, all aspects of delivery and management of Qualifications will take place on an ongoing basis i.e. learner voice will be sought after induction, by the Internal Verifier when interviewing the learner and a summative review will take place.

A monthly and annual evaluation will take place of the overall provision.

EdgeWorks™ will review trends in responses to the assessment questions. If any questions are identified as “problematic” for learners, we will review against learning content and ensure there is no ambiguity, clarifying questions/content where appropriate.

External subject matter experts (SME) review learning modules against unit learning outcomes, ensure assessment questions are referenced within learning content, are mapped to unit assessment criteria as well as ensuring there are sufficient questions to meet the unit assessment criteria.

Clear information and guidelines will be provided to all staff and information bulletins on updating and changes will be distributed.

All members of staff will be encouraged to take part in this practice and documentation and systems will be available to ensure this takes place. Records of the process at each stage will be retained and filed.

7. Centre communication

- Alterations to policies / procedures.

- Alterations to the systems.
- New client / learners / contracts.

Appendix 1 - Health and safety policy

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 imposes certain obligations on an employer not only to take all such actions as are reasonable to safeguard the health and safety of their employees, but also to be able to show that they are doing so, by producing adequate written policies and procedures. EdgeWorks™ fully accepts its responsibilities under the Act.

The Act refers to what is reasonable in given working situations. EdgeWorks™ will:

- Assess the risks in the workplace and put appropriate management measures in place.
- Have written health and safety procedures.
- Ensure that the workplace satisfies health, safety and welfare requirements for ventilation, temperature, lighting and staff facilities.

The Management considers this matter of such importance, that breach of health and safety procedures by staff constitutes misconduct and will be dealt with as a disciplinary matter.

In addition, the centre will liaise with learners' workplaces to ensure that the working environment is assessed and meets regulatory requirements, as well as ensuring the "Safe Learner".

It is not possible to detail here all the health and safety matters that come up on a day-to-day basis, so staff and management must constantly be mindful of their responsibilities individually and collectively for the safety of themselves and their colleagues.

The effectiveness of our equal opportunities policy will be reviewed regularly [at least annually] [in consultation with the recognised trade union(s) if appropriate] and action taken as necessary. For example, where monitoring identifies an under-representation of a particular group or groups, we shall develop an action plan to address the imbalance.

Complaints

Those who believe that they have suffered any form of discrimination, harassment or victimisation are entitled to raise the matter through the agreed procedures. A copy of these procedures is available from Managing Director. All complaints of discrimination will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. In addition to our internal procedures, employees have the right to pursue complaints of discrimination to an industrial tribunal as per current UK legislation. However, employees wishing to make a complaint to a tribunal will normally be required to raise their complaint under our internal grievance procedures first. Every effort will be made to ensure that employees who make complaints will not be victimised. Any complaint of victimisation will be dealt with seriously, promptly and confidentially. Victimisation will result in disciplinary action and may warrant dismissal.

Appendix 4 - Data backup process

Our data backup process work on 4 basic levels:

- Web Server System Back up.
- Office Server Back up.
- Employee Back up.
- Learner Responsibilities.

Web server system back up

The Qualification runs on Care Academy, a 24/7 web site located in a dedicated data centre in Maidenhead. The databases and system is backed up every 2 hours locally, copies of backups are also transferred to an offsite location daily.

In addition, once a week the contents of the Web Server Databases are downloaded to the Office Server.

Any work carried out by the Development Team must be preceded by a manual database / system back up as required.

Office server backup

All administration files are held centrally within the office server. This server has a daily back up facility - cloud backups are also performed and stored off-site for safe-keeping.

In addition, EdgeWorks™ run periodic (at least at monthly intervals) backups to CD / DVD, External Hard drives for all client, internal and administration projects. These backups are in duplicate, one copy archived and the other stored off-site.

Finally, all MS Outlook profiles and data files are stored centrally in the office and are subjected to the same daily / monthly back up processes.

Employee back up processes

All Employees must comply with our data usage policies and procedures. In particular, no Employee should store key Assessment Centre documents on their local hard drive. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Learner Registration Forms.
- Client Account Forms.

Appendix - Safeguarding statement

Within EDGEWORKS, We treat all our learners with the respect they deserve. We have a duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of our learners. We have developed a safeguarding policy that aims to meet these duties.

A safer learning environment is about more than safer recruitment of staff and protecting vulnerable adults from harm. These are both vitally important and should be seen as strategies and processes that are part of a culture of well-being, safety and security, which applies to all learners and all staff (NIACE)

The policy covers abuse and neglect, prevention of bullying, harassment and discrimination.

All staff have received training on safeguarding issues and are supported by the centre manager to comply with this policy.

If you, as a learner here, have any concern about your wellbeing, safety or rights, then you should talk to your assessor / manager.

Appendix 6 - Equal opportunities policy

The following policy is to be used alongside EdgeWorks™ Equality of Opportunity Policy and is applicable to all learners:

- The procedures involved in gaining admission to the qualification through EdgeWorks™ will be clearly expressed and structured to allow ease of access for learners. Prospective and enrolled learners will be offered support and guidance at all stages.
- At enrolment, learners will be asked to complete a form asking for information about their ethnic origin and any additional support needs. This information is required by our funding partners and Skills funding agency, and is used purely for purposes of providing support, for monitoring and review purposes and as a reference when considering necessary adaptations or updates to the assessment process.
- EdgeWorks™ will provide professional advice throughout the recruitment and guidance procedures, which will in no way discriminate against any group of individual.
- Any learner with additional support needs will be given the opportunity to discuss ways of providing solutions to issues of access and any other issues which may present a barrier to learning.

- All registered learners will be given the opportunity to access the support they need in order to complete their qualification Award.
- EdgeWorks™ will ensure all learners are allocated an assessor who will assess their work in accordance with the requirements of The Awarding Organisation.
- EdgeWorks™ will allocate an Internal Verifier to each learner whose role is to maintain the consistency and quality of assessment processes and to ensure compliance with Awarding Organisation requirements.
- Usual policy is for EdgeWorks™ to request full accreditation for the learner's competence upon completion of all Units. However, unit accreditation may be agreed subject to individual circumstances.

Appendix 7 - Plagiarism and assessment malpractice policy for staff and learners

Purpose/scope

- That we have policies and procedures in place to deal with malpractice.
- To ensure that issues are dealt with in an open, fair and effective manner.
- That centres provide appropriate deterrents and sanctions to minimise the risk of malpractice.

Definitions/terminology

Learner Malpractice: Any action by the learner which has the potential to undermine the integrity and validity of the assessment of the learner's work (plagiarism, collusion, cheating, etc.).

Assessor Malpractice: Any deliberate action by an assessor which has the potential to undermine the integrity of qualifications.

Plagiarism: Taking and using another's thoughts, writings, inventions, etc. as one's own.

marking and learner being made aware of malpractice policy. Learner resubmits work in question.

Major Acts of Learner Malpractice: Extensive copying/plagiarism, 2nd or subsequent offence, inappropriate for assessor to deal with.

Responsibilities

- Centre: Should seek proactive ways to promote a positive culture that encourages learners to take individual responsibility for their learning and respect the work of others.
- Assessor: Responsible for designing assessment opportunities which limit the opportunity for malpractice and for checking the validity of the learner's work.
- Internal Verifier: Responsible for malpractice checks when internally verifying work.
- Head of Centre or their nominees: Required to inform the awarding organisation of any acts of malpractice. Responsible for any investigation into allegations of malpractice.

Procedures

The Centre will address potential learner malpractice in the following ways:

- Promote positive and honest study practices.
- Ask learners to declare that work is their own: check the validity of their work.
- Use learner induction and handbook to inform about malpractice and outcomes.
- Ensure learners use appropriate citations and referencing for research sources.
- Assessment procedures should help reduce and identify malpractice.

Definition of malpractice by learners

This list is not exhaustive and other instances of malpractice may be considered by this centre at its discretion:

- Plagiarism of any nature.
- Collusion by working collaboratively with other learners to produce work that is submitted as individual learner work.

- Copying.
- Deliberate destruction of another's work.
- Fabrication of results or evidence.
- False declaration of authenticity in relation to the contents of a portfolio or coursework.
- Impersonation by pretending to be someone else in order to produce the work for another or arranging for another to take one's place in an assessment/examination/test.

Appendix 8 - Learner Voice

Learner Voice is the involvement of learners and potential learners in shaping the learning opportunities that are available to them. The policy emphasis is on putting learners 'at the heart of the system' and listening and responding to the needs of learners.

- Reviews.
- Initial Advice and Guidance.
- Completion questionnaires / feedback.
- Internal Verifier interviews with learners.
- Monitoring of feedback.

Appendix 9 - Learner Confidentiality Policy

Purpose / scope

To ensure that learners' rights to confidentiality of personal information are protected. Personal information may be held in a variety of formats about learners at many stages of the learner journey, including:

- At enrolment, for purposes of funding and fee remission.
- When disclosing information about an impairment, health issue or learning need.
- When disclosing financial or residency information, e.g. at enrolment or for Discretionary Learner Support applications.
- During Information, Advice or Guidance sessions or discussions.

- When being referred for additional or specialist information or support.
- In “classroom” settings, e.g. if disclosing information about beliefs or domestic circumstances during discussions.
- During assessment and review.
- During completion of Individual Learning Plans.
- When giving feedback.

Learners have rights under the Data Protection Act 2018. This protects personal information from being used inappropriately. Under the Acts, this information must be destroyed when it ceases to be relevant. (The SFA requires providers to retain information for six years plus the current academic year). Everyone also has a right to see information held about them if they ask.

Confidential information may be disclosed in classroom situations, e.g. where learners are discussing personal issues in personal development, community education or family learning programmes. The Confidentiality Policy also applies in these situations.

Policy

EdgeWorks™ policy requires that:

- All staff and volunteers maintain a high standard of confidentiality.
- All staff and volunteers are made fully aware of EdgeWorks™ policies on Data Protection and confidentiality.
- All staff and volunteers abide by the principles of these policies, and report any breach in confidentiality or weaknesses in the systems guaranteeing confidentiality.
- Where there may be legal requirements for disclosure (e.g. in cases of a suspected criminal offence, where there is a likelihood of harm to an individual, or where there may be child protection issues) individuals will be told about this at the earliest possible stage.
- Individuals are made aware of:
  - Their entitlements to confidentiality.
  - Their right to see any personal information held about them.

- Their right to refuse to give personal information and any likely impact on them, e.g. Discretionary Learner Support refusal.
- How information collected about them is used and stored.
- Where the SFA requires EdgeWorks™ to record, store or pass on information to other agencies, e.g. for data analysis or for follow up surveys, individuals will be informed about this at enrolment and induction, along with any rights to opt out.

Where learners request access to their personal information, the request should be dealt with sensitively, in a timely manner and with a clear explanation about the process and its outcome (e.g. likely timescales and next steps).

Learners receive information about both confidentiality and about the Learner Code of Conduct in the learner induction leaflet “Services for Learners”.

EdgeWorks™ recognises the needs of learners covered by the Mental Capacity Act 2005, i.e. those who cannot make or express their own decisions. Learners should always be assumed to have mental capacity unless there is good evidence to the contrary, and any decisions made on their behalf (e.g. with partner organisations) must be shown to be in the best interests of the learner. See also EDGEWORKS’s Vulnerable Adults Policy.

Implementation

All staff and volunteers are responsible for implementing the Confidentiality Policy according to their roles. Breaches of confidentiality or weaknesses in systems should be reported to line managers and action taken through the Management Team or fed back to an appropriate director.

Monitoring

- Through feedback, i.e. client meetings, helpdesk support and learner voice.

- Through annual policy review.

- Not expecting any discounts to have a detrimental effect on their business.

The operational and ultimate responsibility for the commitment to our corporate social responsibility principles lies with the Directors of EDGEWORKS. Every employee of EdgeWorks™ is expected to give their full co-operation to the above principles in their activities at work. Consultants or visitors are also expected to apply our environmental principles.

The effectiveness of the Policy Statement will be monitored and reviewed at least annually by the Directors to ensure the Company's continuing compliance with any relevant legislation and to meet new business requirements and to identify areas in need of improvement. We will also ensure that all areas changes will be brought to the attention of employees as necessary.

Appendix 11 - Withdrawal policy

System progress monitoring identifies and highlights learners as having periods of non-activity (absence).

If periods of absence are causing concern, either through not logging in and completing learning sessions or unit task activities, the learners employer will be made aware of this problem.

Investigation will be undertaken, involving the Centre Administrator, Assessors, Internal Verifiers, and the employer to determine the reasons the learner is not progressing.

The investigation will determine whether the learner has withdrawn from learning, or whether the learner can be considered to be on an agreed break. Examples of reasons for an agreed break could be:

- Sickness or injury.
- Maternity/Paternity leave
- Work secondment.
- Operation deployment (MOD).
- Religious reasons.

Other reasons can be considered.

If the learner is identified as being on an agreed break, funding ceases until the learner returns – a Datachange Form will be completed.

If the learner has withdrawn from training a Datachange Form will be completed with leave details.
